Dear Sir –

Your letter Dec 4 has just reached me, having been missent.

I will give you such information as I know and you can put it in such form as you think best and return to me and I will acknowledge and return to you at once.

I will state here that I was a member of Capt Gillette's Co 1st Choctaw & Chickasaw Regt Cav'd first by Col Douglas H Cooper, afterwards appointed Brig Genl – In Apl 1863 I was detailed from my Co for Clerical work in the Adj Office Capt J. B. Heiston A A Genl. In 1864 I was appointed A D C on Genl Cooper's Staff - and had Charge of all business Connected with that Office.

In Apl 1865 - or sometime earlier that Spring - Mr Inge was at Head Quarters as a messenger, and remained there till the Command disbanded on May 26 - 1865 at Fort Washita -

It was my understanding, he was detailed from Genl Price's Corps.

I don't know the Brigade Regiment or Company he belonged to - He never had any Connection with the Adjutant Genls Office only as a messenger. After the Army disbanded Mr Inge remained with Genl Cooper as a general sort a boot looking after the Generals Stock &c and was with Genl Cooper when I left there in Nov or Dec 1865

I knew a good many of the boys in Howells Battery, and issued many orders for the movement of the Battery -

Hope you will be able to get the Lady a Pension. Mr Sykes was a good man and faithful in his duties while he was with the Command

Respectfully
Jno. B. Turner

This is to certify that I am an Ex Confederate soldier, in my 86 year of age, that I was A.D.C on Genl Douglas H. Cooper's Staff, and had charge of the Adjutant General's office for over two years prior to the surrender of the Confederate forces, that in latter part of March or first of April 1865 Thomas Ince was on duty at Genl Coopers Head Quarters as an orderly or messenger.

It was understood he was on detached service, but I dont know from what Command. I had no record in my office of his transfer. I know Mr Inge acted as messenger for the adjutant General's office on several occasions. That part of Genl Cooper's Command stationed at Fort Washita I.T disbanded May 26th 1865. I remained with Genl Cooper, at Tuma, near Fort Washita until the latter part of Nov 1865, and left Mr Inge with Genl Cooper

Dear Sir:

Standley - Posey Chapter No. 1299 of the United Daughters of the Confederacy located at Atoka, Okla. wish to call your attention to the application of Mrs. Terisi Tranquil Inge in securing a Confederate Pension.

Mrs. Inge is a dearly beloved Menber of the above mention chapter. We all know she is in need of more comforts in life than her small income can afford her.

She is the widow of Thomas Inge who enlisted in the Confederate Army in the State of Missouri. She does not know the exact date of his enlistment. He served in the Mo. State Guards under GeN. Sterling Price with Captain Clarks command. He was transferred to Indian Territory and here he served under Gen. Cooper as his Adjt. also as Courier until close of war.

Mrs. Inge owns a lot and small house in the town of Atoka where she lives. Her only income is $12.00 a month when her spare rooms are rented. She could not cash her lot and humble home to-day for more than two thousand dollars.

Her father Rev. R. J. Hogue came to Indian Territory in the year 1858 from the State of Ga. under the Auspices of the Southern Baptist Missionary Board. He preached to Confederate

Mrs. Elizabeth Hosmer Norwood,
Atoka, Oklahoma.

Dear Madam:

We are requested by Miss Roberts, Assistant Secretary of State, to write you concerning the pension application of Mrs. T. T. Inge, of your city.

We regret to advise that we have never been able to secure the proof necessary to the granting of this pension. There is no record on file in the War Department of the service of Mr. Inge, neither has the widow furnished us with affidavits from men who served in the army with her husband. We would be glad to grant this pension, if it were at all possible.

Yours very truly,

IN RE: Pension Mrs. T.T.Inge.

Dear Sir:

Some time since Judge J.M.Humphreys had in hand the pension matter of the above named party, and as he has left Atoka, the matter seems to be at a st standstill.

She is a deserving woman, and needs the pension badly, and at her request I am taking the matter up.

I do not know to what state the application has been advanced, or whether it is for matter of further proof of the service of her husband or what else that is delaying the granting of her pension.

However, I am informed that there was some question, and as I inferred from the information given me, the main obstacle if the granting of the pension, was in theb matter of property owned by Mrs. Inge.

If that is the matter in the way, I am sure from the investigation I mx have made of her property rights, that it should not be an obstacle any longer, for the reason that as a matter of fact, she does not own any property at all.

She lives in and has the use, and has had since her husbands death, of a lot here in Atoka with two houses on it, from one of which she derives a small revenue as rent. Nothing like enough to support her.

She and others who have had the matter of her application in hand, have been under the impression that she owned this property. As a matter of fact, she does not.

This is the situation with reference to the property: Her husband owned this property before his death, the patent thereto being in his name alone.

He died before statehood, at which time the then Indian Territory was under the Arkansas law, Mansfields Digest, and therefore the law of descent and distribution of property before statehood was governed by that law.

That being the case, Mrs Inge would not have inherited the property, as she thought she did, but her son, who is now living would and did inherit it, and the greatest estate Mrs. Inge would have in it in any event would be and was a dower interest, and the right of the use of the "Mansion house" or homestead during her life, with no right to sell or otherwise dispose of it and convey title.

As to her dower interest, before she could or would be vested with title to that, it was necessary for her within the time prescribed by law to have her dower set aside and designated, which she has never done, being under the impression, as she was that she owned the property.

If necessary, and the matter of propertyb is in the way of the granting of her pension, I can and will furnish satisfactory evidence, including opinions of able attorneys on the existing state of facts with reference to the property in question, bearing out the opinion that she does not legally or equitably own the property, or any real estate at all.

Mrs. Inge is in needy circumstances, and I will appreciate it very much if you will let me have a speedy reply hereto, informing me the status of her application, and what is further necessary before the matter can be passed on finally.

Thanking you to give this your usual prompt attention, I am

Yours truly,

In Re: Application Mrs. T.T Inge.
A- 4 517;

Gentleman:

Yours of September 27th, in reference to above matter received. It seems to me that this case has been badly mismanaged. Your letter indicated that Mrs. Inge's application has been turned down. If this is true a great injustice has been done a deserving woman.

I infer from your letter that she is barred from pension roll because of her holding the property in excess of $2000.00.

In the first palce she is not holding the property in any body's name.

She is simply living on her son's property and has no title to it. My former letter to you set out the legal phase of this case in the matter of inheritance.

I did not mean to covey the idea that she was holding the property in her son's name. That is not the case.

If this matter has not been finally disposed of I want to take it up and present proof of the real facts in the case. This woman deserves a pension. She has no property and no means of making a living. On the other hand there there are persons in this town who are drawing pensions who are in much better condition than Mrs Inge.

I beleive if you knew the real facts in this case you would not hesitate to give her application favorable consideration.

In case her application has been denied I desire to make application to reopen the matter and present full proof on her claim.

Any suggestion you see fit to make will be highly appreciated.

Yours truly,

J B Maxey

Dear Madam:-

One Mrs T.T.Inge, wife of Thomas Inge, who was a member of General Cooper's command, Captains Clark, Hughes Regiment Indian Department, Confederate army, has applied to me for a pension, she has made application at one time and her application was not allowed on account of her owning property to the value of $2000.00 I would like for you to look over your records and see if it now contains the proper affidavits as to proof of enlistment and service ect. If not I will get the affidavits required.

Mrs Inge is a poor woman owning a small lot and house in Atoka that is worth about $2000.00 and the only revenue she has is renting one or two of the roo s to this small 4 room house which brings her the small amount of $144. per annum when they are rented, Mr Inge was for a long time a resident of this city and one of ou best citizens.

Dear Sir:

We regret to inform you that it is impossible to grant a pension to Mrs. T. T. Inge not only because of the meager information we have as to the service of her husband in the Confederate Army, but also because Mrs. Inge possesses too much property.

There is no record on file in the War Department of Mr. Inge's service, and positive proof has not been submitted otherwise. We would be glad to grant this pension if it were at all possible.

Rev. C.J.Stewart,

Dear Brother:-

Mr. Maxey, the bearer of this i informs me that he is going to the city on the matter of rehearing in Mrs. T.T.Inge's pension matter.

I am familiar with the facts in her case, and know she is a deserving woman, and believe that had her matter been presented as the facts really were, that her pension would have been granted.

If you can do anything for her in the way of a rehearing you will be doing a christian act, and one that will be appreciated not only by myself but by many of Mrs. Inge's friends here.

The statement I have given Mr. Maxey shows the condition of her property as to taxes.

Your friend,

County Judge,
Atoka, Oklahoma.

Dear Madam:

Replying to a letter from Mr. O. H. Presson concerning your former application for a pension, filed in this office July 20, 1920, same being rejected on account of your having too much property, I wish to advise you that the law has not changed in that respect. The income allowed by the law now in effect is three hundred dollars, and property to the value of two thousand dollars ($2000.00); while the new law which takes effect after the end of the present Fiscal Year, June 30th, does not change the value of property allowed but does change the amount of income allowed to five hundred dollars ($500.00).

If the value of your property and the amount of your income does not exceed the amount allowed by the law, it will be necessary that you make affidavit to that effect and send it to the Pension Commissioner in order that your application may be reconsidered.

Respectfully yours,

Secretary.

I do not know what kind of a record you have in your possession, Her property here in town is not worth over $1200 to $1500.00 She has no other property. There were times when the property was boost up to more than its worth. It may be she made an application for pension at that time. I am sure I can get a proof that her husband was in the Confederate ~~Army~~. I am going to take time to see that she gets a pension. Have you any form ~~that~~ to be filled out by witnesses. If so, please send me one.

Yours in His name

Dear Sir and Brother:

In reply to yours of recent date in which you state that you feel sure you will be able to secure proof that the husband of Mrs. T. T. Inge was a Confederate soldier, we enclose herewith affidavit blanks to be used for that purpose.

As to the valuation of her property, perhaps Mrs. Inge did not consult her tax assessment list when she made the statement that the valuation was $2100.00. If the taxable valuation is less, and you can send us a sworn statement to that effect, we will be glad to reconsider her application. However, we can do nothing for her in the way of granting her a pension if she cannot produce the required proof of her husband's service.

We assure you that we will be glad to hear from you again in regard to this matter.

Sincerely yours,
