Dear Madam:

Please pardon my delay in reply to your two letters of 6th and 10th relative to death of your father, Coalby Poindexter, but delay was occasioned because of unusual volume of business in my office following end of the last quarter.

If your father left a widow, she is entitled to receive the warrant which you hold, and should file her own application for a pension in this office. She should indorse the warrant as follows:-

"Coalby Poindexter,
by---------Poindexter, widow"

and there should be two witnesses indorse with her.

If there is no widow, you may indorse as above, except that you should specify that you are the daughter, and sign your own name with two witnesses. Any bank should cash same for you. The money may then be used to defray funeral expenses. This will be his last warrant.

Please accept my sympathy in the loss of your good father, and extend my regrets at the passing of one of my old comrades of 1861-5 to each member of your family.

Very truly yours,

Commissioner.

Dec. 6, 1915.

Colby E. Poindexter,
Crawford, Oklahoma.

Dear Sir:-

Replying to yours of Dec. 3, I will state that in addition to your application not having been signed by the county judge of your county, you failed to furnish any proof of your service, by two credible citizens, as the law requires, who personally knew you while in the service.

Mr. W. C. Redden and S. K. Roberts, made affidavit to your citizenship in Oklahoma for twelve months prior to the passage of the Bill, and that they had only known you for the past twelve years, but did not know you at the time of your service in the army.

I wrote to Washington upon receipt of your application, to get the record of the service there, as the law requires us to do; but the record there does not show your name as a member of any Tenn Cav organization, known as the 8th Tenn Cav; but it shows two men by the names of C. C. Poindexter, who served in Co. B. 7th Tenn Cav. Duckworth's Regiment.

I am writing today, to Washington for the record of these two men. Your parole, of course, is good evidence. Sec. 6, of the Pension Law requires that each applicant desiring a pension shall make application in writing to the county judge, furnishing an itemized statement of all property, effects, or income possessed by himself, or his wife or both of them; which application shall be sworn to before some officer authorized to administer oath, and supported by the affidavit of at least two citizens. This can be sworn to before a Notary Publee. You say in your application that your home is assessed at $900.00.

Section 2, of the Bill says neither the applicant himself, nor his wife, nor both, shall be the owner of property, real or personal in excess of the value of $1000.00, household goods and wering apparell excluded; or in the enjoyment of any income, annuity, pension, the emoluments of any office, or wages for their services, in exeess of $180.00 per year.

What your home is assessed at has nothing to do with it. It is the value of your home. Nor is the Board responsible for your indebtedness on the home; and anyone who has a home worth $1000 does not come under what is termed, in Sec. 1, an indigent person.

To be candid with you my brother, I don't think you are entitled to a pension, under the Law.

Very truly yours,

Dear Sir:

In reply to your letter of 24th instant relative to your pension for the last two quarters, I have to advise that Warrant No. 9700 was mailed to you at Crawford, Route A., on October 3, 1919, and you were so advised in a letter dated October 29th, 1919, the ltter also addressed to you at Crawford in reply to your letter concerning this warrant. The Treasurer's records here show that this warrant is still uncashed, and it is probably in the post office at Crawford, as it has never been returned here. It may be possible that it is lost in the mails.

Relative to the December claim, as you know the claims for the following quarter is always inclosed with the warrant mailed and as you did not receive the October warrant, the claim was not received by you and this office did not have your signed claim for the December payment, hence could not issue warrant for same. I am inclosing you a duplicate claim for the December quarter, but you should make every effort to get the October warrant before doing anything further about this payment. If you do not get it after communicating with the Crawford post office, advise us again and we will advise you further.

Respectfully,

Secretary.

Hon. R. A. Sneed,

Oklahoma City, Oklahoma.

Dear Sir:

I had a phone from one of our old vets thia morning, Colby Embre Poindexter, of Strong City, Oklahoma, this County, that he was not getting his pension; had not received any thing for three quarters. I might have misunderstood him as to the time, but your records ought to show.

Please to look up his matter, and hurry it down to him. Also I sent him application for increase and he sent it in. He has not heard from that either.

Yours very truly,

J. M. Wileman
