Dear Sirs:
Granville D. Neville has asked me to write to you concerning his pension which he says he has not yet received.

He states that the papers had some error in them when they were first sent to your office and that you returned them to him. He corrected them and sent them back to you, hee thinks about the 20th of June.

He says he needs this money badly and will be greatly obliged to you if you will look it up and send as soon as possible.

Thanking you for your courtesy int this matter, I am,

Very truly yours,
O E Thompson

Dear Sirs:

Mr. Granville D. Nevill has been in the bank every day urging me to write or wire your office again in regard to his pension which has failed to reach him this time. We wrote in regard to it some 10 days or two weeks ago and we have not had a reply.

You will confer a great favor on Mr. Nevill if you will at least write to him and advise him why he has not received this money. He is an old man and needs his pension and is very much worried to know why it has not come.

Trusting to have the courtesy of an immediate reply,

I am,

Very truly yours,

O E Thompson

President.

P.S. You sent his papers back for correction and he corrected them and returned them to you long before the first of the month.

Dear Sir:

In regard to the pension warrant of Mr. Granville D. Nevill will say that on July 21st we mailed him warrant No. 75626, and that the delay was caused by having to return his claim for correction.

Trusting that Mr. Nevill has received the check by this time, and regretting the worry this delay has caused him, I am,

Yours very truly,
