Mr. C. J. Stewart
Commissioner of Pensions
Capitol Building
Oklahoma City, Oklahoma

Dear Sir: Re: Pensioner No. 1942
Sparrel Scott, Marlow.

Mr. Chaplin Scott of Marlow, son of the above named pensioner, has just informed me that his father died on the 16th day of January of this year in Marlow, Oklahoma, and that he has received a check for $75.00 pension money for the quarter ending June 30th, 1924. Mr. Chaplin Scott paid the burial expenses incurred in the burial of his father and in addition to the amount of funds belonging to the deceased at the time of his death, Mr. Chaplin Scott has paid the sum of $80.00 The deceased left as his heirs the following named persons: Lindsay Scott, Ben Scott, Grayson Scott, Lizzie Hoff, Louie Morrison, Carrie King and Chaplin Scott. The relatives of the deceased inform me that they have no record showing that he cashed the last two warrants issued to him.

I wish you would examine the warrant record of the office of the treasurer and see if the warrants for the quarter ending September 1st, 1923 and December 1st, 1923, have been paid. Also inform me whether or not the warranty which has been drawn in favor of the deceased can be used without an administration proceedings being filed. The deceased left no property whatever and it would costs more to administer upon his estate than the warranty would amount to. I thought perhaps there was some regulation existing in your department as in the National Government, whereby the heirs by proper affidavit, could obtain this fund without any administration proceeding.

Thanking you for the courtesy of reply, giving me the information requested, I am

Yours very truly,

WCL:LC.
