Gentlemen:

We have your card advising that the Postmaster, of Coalgate, had returned a warrant made payable to Mrs. Cornelius Cullom. So you might know the circumstances surrounding the return of this warrant, this is to advise that Mrs. Cullom died September 3 in the Old Soldiers Home, Ardmore, and was buried on September 5, Coalgate.

Her relatives live in Texas and California, one daughter in each state. The daughter from California was here for the funeral and several days before her death.

The writer personally assumed all of Mrs. Cullom's financial responsibilities and assisted her in taking care of them. This was due to the fact that we furnished her with merchandise out of the store. The writer stood good for a hospital bill, in Ada, Sugg Clinic which amounts to $60.60 and for the balance due on a funeral bill with A. Slater, Undertakers, in amount of 52. A. Slater, is in Coalgate. This makes a total of $112.60 that the writer stood good for.

We do not know what is necessary for you to deliver this check to us so the writer can pay these bills, but these are the facts in the case. Of course, if you require an affidavit as to how the matter was handled and to whom the bills are due we will be glad to get them. Please advise so we may let the creditors know what to expect. Since the writer is personally responsible he is anxious to get these bills paid. We will appreciate your prompt reply.

Re: P-6272
Cornelia Cullom.

Dear Sir:

Your letter received in regard to the expenses of Pensioner, Cornelia Cullom and hardly know just how to advise you. An enclosing instructions, which are bent to a deceased Pensioner's family but as you say, the Daughters live out of the State and you attended to the expenses, why not sign it as friend or creditor, as per instructions and present it to the bank, I believe they will cash it for you, for you can explain the circumstances and being well known in Coalgate, they will do it for you; otherwise you would have to send it, with instructions to one of the daughters to sign and then return to you.

We thank you for your kind consideration for this old lady and hope that you may be able to have everything cleared up satisfactory,

Yours truly,

John W. Harris, Commissioner
By,

Secretary.
