Gentlemen:-

Under cover herewith you will find the application of Clavin Clay Van Noy, for confederate pension. Mr. Van Noy lived for a while at the old Confederate's Home, at Ardmore, and for some reason he has left there, and decided to draw a pension, I have approved his application, and in my judgment the application meets all the requirements of your board, and I trust you will find it convenient to approve same. I know Mr. Van Noy personally, and know he has no property, and he is very much in need of this help.

Very truly yours,
