HB2188, a committee substitute also by Hendrick, modifies the definition of "medical savings account" to include that which is offered by the State and Education Employees Group Insurance Board. It allows any funds remaining in a medical savings account at the end of the tax year to remain in the account for future medical expenses. The measure received a do pass motion.

HB2189, a committee substitute by Penny Williams, requires the State and Education Employees Group Insurance Board to pay for medical services and treatment rendered by out-of-state hospitals. It requires the treatment be set at the same level paid to an in-state hospital if the insured employee was referred by a physician and it was the closest hospital to the employee's place of residence, unless otherwise contracted with another out-of-state hospital. The measure received a do pass motion.

HB2271, by Sen. Brooks Douglass, R-Oklahoma City, increases the minimum assessment for the sexual assault victims examination fund to $40. With a stricken enacting clause, the measure received a do pass motion.

HB2279, by Sen. Ben Brown, D-Oklahoma City, exempts persons over the age of 65 from paying a fee for a traffic record summary. With a stricken title, it received a vote of 18 to 14, passing it out of the committee.

HB2323, a committee substitute by Sen. Brad Henry, D-Shawnee, creates the School District Budget Act. The measure received a do pass motion.

HB2335, by Sen. Ed Long, D-Enid, allows a school board to create policies regarding the food expenses incurred during travel of employees of the district. With a stricken title, the measure received a do pass motion.

HB2403, a committee substitute by Smith, modifies deposits to the Attorney General's Revolving fund, allocating 25 percent of each deposit as follows: three-fourths to the Attorney General's Evidence Fund and one-fourth to the Attorney General's Revolving fund. The measure received a do pass motion.

HB2407, by Sen. James Maddox, D-Lawton, specifies the purpose of the State Long-Term Care Ombudsman Program. It states legislative intent to strengthen and fund the program. With a stricken title, the measure received a do pass motion.
