

MORE FROM THE HOUSE FLOOR, WEDNESDAY, MAY 22

By Shawn Ashley
Staff Writer

■(GIT) House members again appeared aware that sine die will soon be upon them and considered a number of measures on Wednesday, including:

HB1238, by Rep. Ed Crocker, D-Norman, requiring the disclosure of the identity of any public official or spouse that is an owner or operator or who is a principal of any legal entity which owns or operates a project or who has any financial interest, whether direct or indirect, in the project that no conflict of interest exists because of the public official's or any person who was a public official during the immediately preceding 24 months and requiring that a list of all political campaign contributions made in Oklahoma during the 48 months immediately preceding the submission of the application of all persons that will have a financial interest in the project, received a passing vote of 70-23 after the acceptance of the bill's third conference committee report.

Crocker told House members that the third conference committee report was identical to the second, and that the matter was before them again because it had been "mis-handled" in the Senate, which rejected the bill's second conference committee report on Tuesday. The bill now returns again to the Senate.

HB2374, by Rep. Jari Askins, D-Duncan, creating the Workplace and Employee Protection Act, received a passing vote of 96-0 following the adoption of its second conference committee report.

HB2512, by Rep. John Bryant, R-Tulsa, transferring the authority over the Oklahoma Office of Volunteerism from the Office of the Secretary of State to the Department of Civil Emergency and creating the Oklahoma Commission on Volunteerism, received a 96-4 passing vote with an emergency clause after the adoption of its conference committee report.

HB2698, by Rep. Mike Ervin, D-Wewoka, authorizing the Department of Human Services to collect and deposit certain payments, received a passing vote with an emergency clause of 90-0 following the adoption of the bill's second conference committee report.

HB2704, by Rep. Larry Rice, D-Pryor, requiring the State Auditor and Inspector to provide certain notification to municipalities of audit requests and prohibiting certain persons from entering into agreements or accepting payments or discriminating against occupants relating to receiving video services, was passed by the House by a 90-3 vote following the adoption of its second conference committee report.

HB3008, by Rep. Debbie Blackburn, D-Oklahoma City, received a passing vote of 100-0 following the adoption of its second conference committee report. The bill puts restrictions on the housing of Department of Corrections inmates near schools.

HCR1097, by Rep. Bill Paulk, D-Oklahoma City, directing all state agencies and state educational institutions to immediately remove from their computer systems all illegal obscene material, especially child pornography, received a passing vote of 98-0 following the adoption of the Senate's amendments to the measure.

HCR1103, commending Peggy Smith for being selected as the 1996 National Financial Services Advocate of the year, was adopted by unanimous consent.

Also adopted by unanimous consent was HCR1113, by Rep. Betty Boyd, D-Tulsa, creating the Task Force on Prevention of Genetic Discrimination.

HCR1114, by Rep. Danny Hilliard, D-Sulphur, congratulating the Oklahoma Association of Independent Insurance Agents was adopted by unanimous consent.

HJR1104, by Rep. Dan Webb, R-Oklahoma City, received a passing vote of 97-0. The resolution disapproves certain rules proposed by the Office of Personnel Management.

HJR1105, disapproving certain rules proposed by the Oklahoma State Credit Union Board, also by Webb, received a passing vote of 73-26.

HJR1106, also by Webb, disapproving certain rules proposed by the Oklahoma State Board of Education, received a passing vote of 99-0.

HJR1108, by Rep. Adair, disapproving certain rules of the Wildlife Conservation Commission, received a passing vote of 95-0 with an emergency clause.

Without discussion or debate, House members gave a 70-28 passing vote to SB694, by Rep. Joe Hutchison, D-Jay, adding county boards and public trust authorities to provisions allowing dual office holding, following the adoption of the bill's conference committee report.

SB976, by Rep. Randall Erwin, D-Nashoba, stating the ownership of recover-
See House, page 6

MORE FROM THE SENATE FLOOR, WEDNESDAY, MAY 22

By Brandon Beard
Staff Writer

■(GIT) The Senate considered the following measures on Wednesday, May 22, 1996:

HB2362, by Sen. Brad Henry, D-Shawnee, provides exemptions from notice and challenge procedures as they relate to financial privacy and provides for customer non-notification.

The measure was laid over for further questioning.

HB2374, by Sen. Angela Monson, D-Oklahoma City, creates the Workplace and Employee Protection Act.

The measure was laid over by Monson, at the request of Sen. Gene Stipe, D-McAlester, for further questioning.

HB2403, by Sen. Jerry Smith, R-Tulsa, modifies the percentage of deposits to the Attorney General's Revolving Fund.

The measure was laid over for further questioning.

HB2512, by Sen. Gerald "Ged" Wright, R-Broken Arrow, transfers authority of the Oklahoma Office of Volunteerism from the Office of the Secretary of State to the Department of Civil Emergency Management.

After adopting the bill's conference committee report, members passed the measure and its emergency clause with a vote of 45 to 2.

HB2692, by Sen. Ted Fisher, D-Sapulpa, places the Juvenile Justice Advisory and Oversight Committee under the supervision of the Office of Juvenile Affairs.

After adopting the bill's conference committee report, members passed the measure and its emergency clause with a vote of 46 to 0.

HB2755, by Sen. Ben Brown, D-Oklahoma City, requires the Department of Juvenile Justice to provide a uniform system of assessment of the reading ability of each juvenile upon initial placement in an institution or facility.

After adopting the bill's conference committee report, members passed the measure and its emergency clause with a vote of 48 to 0.

HB2806, by Sen. Bernest Cain, D-Oklahoma City, allows any consumer reporting

See Senate, page 6