PANEL PRESSES DAC FOR ACCOUNTABILITY

By Shawn Ashley
Staff Writer

■(GIT) What was supposed to be a discussion of the fiscal needs of the state's district attorneys turned into a debate over the accountability of funding maintained by the District Attorneys Council.

Appearing before the General Conference Committee on Appropriations' subcommittee on judicial, public safety and law enforcement services, DAC director Bruce Walker found himself having to defend the agency's handling of a variety of funds, including those appropriated by the state, in a sometimes heated exchange with some members of the panel. The DAC oversees the distribution of state funds to individual district attorneys throughout the state and also administers the disbursement of other state and federal funds to law enforcement agencies and groups.

Sen. Herb Rozell, D-Tahlequah, asked Walker how much money, including state and federal appropriations, the council had been responsible for handling during the most recent fiscal year.

As Walker began to detail the various appropriations made to the agency, Rozell interrupted, asking if the total amount was not close to $56 million. Walker disagreed, saying a total of $47.4 million had come into the council, including $1.67 million in federal funds that went directly to district attorneys.

Rozell then pressed Walker for the total amount spent by the council on operations. Walker said the amount was $755,104.90.

Perhaps the harshest questioning during the meeting came from Sen. Gene Stipe, D-McAlester, who asked, "Who decides which members of this committee you will denounce after we meet?"

When Walker said he did not understand the senator's question, Stipe said, "It happens every session. The council and individual district attorneys hold press conferences to denounce this committee because we do what you wanted us to do." The senator also alluded to the comments of an individual district attorney, saying their statement was "un-

DOC REQUESTS ADDITIONAL $96 MILLION

By Shawn Ashley
Staff Writer

■(GIT) The Department of Corrections on Monday asked the General Conference Committee on Appropriations' subcommittee on judicial, public safety and law enforcement services for an additional $96 million in its fiscal year 1997 budget.

Sen. Cal Hobson, D-Lexington, had called the department and its financial needs a monster during an earlier meeting of the subcommittee. On Monday, the Lexington Democrat challenged the analogy, but the message was much the same.

"We've tried to save back every dime we could," Hobson said, "but regardless of what we pour into the bucket, it's not going to get anywhere near the top."

Two requests alone account for nearly one-half the department's request — annualization of the fiscal year 1996 supplement and the leasing of additional private prison bed space.

Annualization of this year's supplemental appropriation to the department will cost an estimated $18 million, allowing the continued leasing of some 969 private prison beds in Texas and Oklahoma, the continued employment of an additional 150 staff members, the purchase of additional security equipment for probation and parole staff and energy contract payments for the W.S. Key Correctional Center.

The supplemental appropriation became necessary when prison officials ran out of alternatives for housing inmates in the state and county facilities. In addition to contracting with private prisons in Texas, as well as Walker agreed, saying it was not the council's practice to denounce the committee.

Stipe also pressed Walker for an accounting of money resulting from drug forfeitures and bogus check collections, saying he had repeatedly asked for such reports but that they had never been supplied. Walker immediately distributed a report concerning the funds from the 1995 fiscal year and added that he had made the reports available as required by statute.

"Do you have a problem giving it to me, specifically?" Stipe asked. "No," replied Walker, assuring the senator that he would be sure he had the most recent reports.

As it has with other agencies, the subcommittee delayed consideration of the bulk of the council's request, approving only the state employee pay raise and associated benefits increase portions of the request.

The council asked the panel to consider allocating $66,994 for an increase in district attorneys salaries mandated by law and effective Jan. 1, 1997; $5.6 million to cover the cost of 140 FTEs in district attorneys offices to deal with increased workloads resulting from violent crime; and $114,000 to cover the increased cost of testimony from expert witnesses.

The subcommittee is expected to take up those requests, along with the requests from other agencies not related to the state employee pay raise, at a later meeting.

with a new facility in Holdenville, the department has been forced to temporarily house inmates in condemned cellhouses at the Oklahoma State Reformatory in Granite and at the Oklahoma State Penitentiary in McAlester.

Larry Fields, DOC director, has also asked Governor Frank Keating to consider invoking the emergency release provision of the state's prison population management act. That would allow the department to release inmates meeting certain statutory conditions. The governor has yet to respond to the request.

In a related request, Fields asked the subcommittee to consider allocating $26.5 million for the lease of additional private prison bed space.

"Our projections, unfortunately, have been on target," Fields said of the prison system's ever increasing population.

Specifically, the department estimates it will exceed its population limit by some 866 inmates by the end of the current fiscal year. In addition to space to house those inmates, Fields said, the department's projections show the need to phase in 1,530 more prison beds by the end of the 1997 fiscal year in order to handle the growing inmate population.

The department's request is more than double that recommended by the governor. Keating has proposed funding for 1,603 additional prison beds, including 1,383 private prison beds, 60 additional contract county jail beds and contracts for 160 beds in Mexico.

Asked by Sen. Gene Stipe, D-McAlester, what it would take to bring the prisoners housed in Texas back to Oklahoma, Fields and other DOC personnel pointed to the same thing: Money.

"There aren't sufficient beds in this state to bring them home," a DOC employee attending the meeting said.

Following the procedure set in its previous meetings, the subcommittee approved allocations to the department for the state-wide employee pay raise at a cost of $6.5 million and the associated OPERS contribution of $558,375. Also approved was full funding of the department's contribution to the teacher's retirement system of $22,500.

PREDATORY SEX OFFENDER LEGISLATION BEING REFINED FOR CONSIDERATION

From House Media

■(OKLAHOMA CITY) While President Clinton considers whether to sign "Megan's Law," state legislators are refining a similar proposal that would authorize public disclosure of sexual predators, the principal author of the measure said Monday.

"Recent televised reports that our legislation is dead were erroneous," said Rep. Bill Paulk and Sen. Ben Brown.

Rep. Bill Paulk

House Bill 2617

by the two Oklahoma City Democrats is in the hands of a House/Senate conference committee that has been fine-tuning the measure.

The bill is a composite of at least three pieces of legislation introduced this year: House Bills 2610 and 2617, both filed by Paulk, plus House Bill 3005 by Rep. Jack Bonny, D-Burns Flat, and Sen. Gilmer Capps, D-Snyder.

"Megan's Law"—federal legislation named for a 7-year-old New Jersey girl raped and murdered two years ago by a twice-convicted molester who lived on her block—would require notification of local officials whenever dangerous child molesters or rapists are released from prison and move into their communities.

Similarly, HB2617 would loosen restrictions on revealing the identification of sex offenders, Paulk and Brown related.

"We can't brand their foreheads or hang cowbells around their necks," said Paulk, chairman of the House Committee on Criminal Justice. "Nevertheless, with House Bill 2617 we would have the ability to alert the public when a sex offender is loose in the community."

— Sex offenders who exhibit characteristics indicating "a tendency to victimize or injure others" would be publicly identified as "predators." For example:

— Whenever a sexual predator is released from custody, local law enforcement agencies would be authorized to alert anyone they deem "appropriate," including any prior victim of that convict, residential neighborhoods and churches, community parks, local school districts, convenience stores, businesses "and other places that children or other potential victims may frequent," as well as the predator's family.

— Notification could include the predator's name, address, age, height and weight, hair and eye color, and even a photograph; the type of vehicle the convict usually drives; descriptions of "the primary and secondary targets" and the "method of offense" of the predator; any conditions or restrictions imposed upon the convict at the time of his probation or parole; and the name and telephone number of the convict's probation or parole officer.

— A law enforcement agency would be permitted to divulge any information it has about a predatory sex offender to anyone who requested it.

— Every convicted sex offender who remains in Oklahoma would be compelled to register with the state Corrections Department for 10 years, and with local law enforcement agencies for five years.

Under current law, a convict who completes a sex offender treatment program is required to register with the Department of Corrections for only two years after his release from custody.

— Convicts whose names appear on sex offender registries would have to supply their street address, as well. Some have been circumventing the intent of the law by listing only a post-office box, Paulk explained.

— Sex offender rosters maintained by local law enforcement agencies would be made available to "any parent using a child care provider" and to area churches, as well as to all public and private elementary schools and child care facilities in their vicinity, and state agency that licenses individuals to work with children, and to other entities that provide services to children.

— Any violation of the Sex Offender Registration Act would be considered a felony, as would hiring any sex offender to work in a child care facility or day care center. In either instance, the penalty would be a prison sentence for up to five years and/or a fine of up to $5,000.

"Senator Brown and I don't intend to let this session end without passage of a tougher sex-crimes law," Paulk vowed.

"Sex offenders will not be allowed to prey on innocent children and unsuspecting, law-abiding citizens in Oklahoma. A convict's "right to privacy" is of absolutely no concern to me if it jeopardizes the safety of the public, especially children."

SENATOR, OIDS DIRECTOR EXPRESS CONCERNS

By Shawn Ashley
Staff Writer

■(GIT) A state lawmaker and the director of the Oklahoma Indigent Defense System on Monday expressed concerns that the agency may be approaching a constitutional crisis because it does not have enough funding.

Responding to a question from Sen. Gene Stipe, D-McAlester and a member of the General Conference Committee on Appropriations' subcommittee on judicial, public safety and law enforcement services, Oklahoma Indigent Defense System Director Robert Ganstine said his staff is "getting to the point that they won't be able to provide adequate representation" to their clients.

The statutorily-created agency is responsible for providing attorneys for criminal defendants deemed to be unable to pay the cost of legal representation. Projections indicate attorneys from the system will be appointed in an estimated 3,900 non-capital felony cases during the 1997 fiscal year.

In addition, state law provides for the system to provide legal representation to juveniles in certain legal matters, as well as certain members of the juvenile's families.

The agency is also responsible and may be best known for handling the appeals of inmates sentenced to death. The agency is currently handling various of appeals of more than 90 inmates on death row.

To best meet those obligations, Ganstine said, the agency will need $12.4 million in addition to the $8.1 million already appropriated to the agency, including $821,595 to annualize a supplemental appropriation approved earlier in the legislative session.

"My concern is that I don't want to see us become unconstitutional because you're underfunded and undermanned," Stipe said. "I want to be confident you have enough money."

The concern, Ganstine told the subcommittee, is that federal supervision of the state's indigent defense system could cost the state as much as $50 million to $75 million if it were determined to be unconstitutional. That amount is more than double the agency's total funding request of approxi-

KEATING, MCCAULEY LAUNCH MISINFORMATION CAMPAIGN, THREATEN ROAD PROJECTS, EDUCATION FUNDING

From Senate Media

■(OKLAHOMA CITY) Gov. Keating's Transportation Secretary has been "shoot-ing from the lip with little regard to accu-racy" in his recent attacks on a legislative program for roads and highways, according to a Senate budget leader.

"I'm really surprised to see this kind of misinformation coming from Neal McCaleb," said Sen.

Sen. Larry Dickerson

Larry Dickerson, chairman of the Senate Appropriations Subcommittee on General Government and Transportation. "He knows what the real budget numbers are, but at Governor Keating's direction, he's deliberately trying to mislead Oklahomans on this point."

McCaleb has been traveling around the state in recent weeks, threatening to cancel local road projects and telling newspapers and civic clubs that legislators are advocating a standstill budget for the Transportation Department. In reality, lawmakers are proposing a $21 million increase for ODOT, $6 million of which has already been delivered to the agency in the general appropriations bill passed earlier this session.

"I noticed Secretary McCaleb has conveniently forgotten that we've already given his agency a $6 million increase and are trying to give him another $15 million to beef up our road and highway construction program," said Senator Dickerson.

If enacted, the legislative program would represent the largest increase in state funds for the Department of Transportation since 1988.

"Roads and highways are a top priority and we're treating them as such. I don't see how Governor Keating and Neal McCaleb can misconstrue that fact, even on their most partisan day."

In his recent statements, McCaleb has also decried the loss of federal highway funds, implying that state legislators should be responsible for offsetting any and all federal cuts handed down by the Republican Congress in Washington.

"Unfortunately, as Oklahoma lawmakers, we can't stop Newt Gingrich from cutting our federal highway funds. We're doing the best we can to make up for those cuts by increasing our state road investment, but we can't repair all the damage the Republican Congress has caused to the highway budget," said Senator Dickerson.

"As Republicans, Governor Keating and Mr. McCaleb are a lot closer to Newt than I am. I would suggest that if they're really interested in improving our infrastructure, they should use their relationship with Mr. Gingrich to save Oklahoma's federal highway funds, instead of spreading misinformation about the Legislature's road investment program."

In their effort to discredit legislative attempts to increase road and highway funding, Governor Keating and Secretary McCaleb are promoting an alternative plan drafted by the executive branch. That proposal would use funding traditionally dedicated to schools, economic development initiatives and law enforcement to bolster the transportation agency's budget.

"We're going to do everything we can to boost our road construction program, but not at the expense of education and law enforcement. That's why the legislative proposal is far superior to the one drafted by the Governor. Our proposal will invest additional dollars in roads and highways, without taking money from our schools," said Senator Dickerson.

"You can't effectively promote economic development by draining money from education. You have to focus on both schools and roads. That's what we're trying to do with the legislative program."

McCaleb has suggested that ODOT's five year construction plan will be disrupted and local projects canceled if the Governor's program is not adopted, but Senator Dickerson says that statement is also untrue.

"By threatening to kill local road projects, Governor Keating and Mr. McCaleb have resorted to the good old boy, arm-twisting politics that Oklahomans rejected a long time ago," said Senator Dickerson. "They've demonstrated they're willing to sacrifice vital infrastructure improvements in communities around the state just to advance their partisan agenda. It's completely irresponsible."

"The legislative budget proposal will keep everything on track with the five year program. Mr. McCaleb knows that, he's just trying to get his hands on every dollar he can. If I didn't know him better, I'd think he was just trying to build his own little personal empire at ODOT."

The Poteau legislator says he's surprised by the tone of McCaleb's statements in light of the bipartisan budget agreement hammered out by legislators and the Governor last week.

"I think it's pretty ironic that Mr. McCaleb launched his misinformation campaign at the same time we were shaking hands with the Governor on a historic budget agreement. Apparently, he's out of the loop on the spirit of bipartisan cooperation at the State Capitol."

mately $20.5 million.

Panel members questioned Ganstine repeatedly about whether it might be possible to reduce the number of cases by better determining which clients were truly indigent or by collecting the cost of defending those determined not to be actually indigent.

"That might reduce the number of applications," Ganstine replied, adding that he could not estimate what affect it would have on the agency's caseload.

The subcommittee took no action on the bulk of the agency's request, following the procedure it established with its first meeting. Instead, members approved the agency's allocations for the statewide employee pay raise and associated benefits increase.

The panel is expected to renew consideration of the agency's request at a later meeting.

Herbert said there is approximately $1.6 million in the fund currently.

He also said that, currently, there are four different route options in the works. "Each with their own price tag," he said.

Should Amtrak locate in Oklahoma, the state would receive some $25 million in federal start-up funds.

Herbert said federal legislation was pending that would remove Amtrak from federal subsidies all together.

"If ever Amtrak was going to locate in Oklahoma, this is the time to do it," he said.

After adopting the measure's conference committee report, members passed the bill and its emergency clause with a vote of 43 to 1.

The provision was amended by the House, changing the time in which a tenant has to comply with noncompliance with the Oklahoma Residential Landlord and Tenant Act from 14 days to 10 days.

"This amendment makes it where you can get rid of renters really quickly...without many rights," Cain said, blasting the House for bringing the amendment.

After adopting the bill's conference committee report, members passed the measure with a vote of 33 to 12.

ENVIRONMENTALLY FRIENDLY CORNSTARCH CUTLERY DEMONSTRATED

From US Dept. of Agriculture

■(WASHINGTON) There was something new on the menu Thursday in the U.S. Department of Agriculture's cafeteria — but it wasn't something to eat. Cutlery made of environmentally-friendly cornstarch was available in the cafeteria line, part of a one-day demonstration of the cutlery, developed with the help of the USDA.

The Cooperative State Research, Education, and Extension Service provided research funds for the cornstarch-based cutlery through special research grants to Michigan State University for Michigan Biotechnology Institute to modify the starch into a thermoplastic product. The utensils are manufactured by a joint venture between the Institute and Japan Corn Starch, called Evercorn. The water repellent utensils hold up as well as conventional polystyrene knives, forks, and spoons, and are fully biodegradable in a composting system.

The Department of Defense is currently testing the cutlery for possible use on military bases in the United States and around the world.

These utensils are not yet in the marketplace because they currently do not compete in cost with petroleum-based plastic utensils. However, with growing interest in environmentally friendly products, it is anticipated that there will be demand for these items, which in turn will bring down the cost.

SENATE WILDLIFE HOLDS BRIEF MEETING

By Brandon Beard
Staff Writer

■(GIT) Members of the Senate Committee on Wildlife met briefly Monday to confirm two of Governor Frank Keating's executive nominations and to adopt one House Joint Resolution.

William C. Crawford, of Frederick, was confirmed to another term on the Oklahoma Wildlife Conservation Commission.

Sponsored by Sen. Gilmer Capps, D-Snyder, Crawford will serve an 8 year term, ending July 1, 2003. He was confirmed with a vote of 7 to 0.

Also confirmed to the Wildlife Commission, though he was not present for his confirmation, was John Groendyke, of Enid.

"John has been in service with the Wildlife Commission almost as long as I have been in the Legislature," said Committee Chairman Frank Shurden, D-Henryetta.

Sponsored by Sen. Ed Long, D-Enid, the owner of Groendyke Transportation Company was confirmed with a vote of 7 to 0.

Also before the committee was HJR1098, by Shurden. The resolution disapproves an emergency rule of the Oklahoma Wildlife Conservation Commission because it does not reflect the intent of the Legislature.

The problem stems from the commission charging $11 for special Bobcat-Raccoon-Gray Fox Licenses. The Legislature had originally allowed the commission to charge only $10 for the license. The commission began charging the increased fee in an attempt to compensate for the $1 it loses for each license that is retained by the entity selling the license.

The resolution was adopted.

MORE INTERNATIONAL FLIGHTS SMOKE-FREE, SECRETARY PENA NOTES

From U.S. Dept. of Transportation

■(WASHINGTON) As a result of actions by the Clinton administration and both U.S. and foreign airlines, approximately 80 percent of non-stop scheduled U.S. airline flights between the United States and foreign destinations will be smoke-free as of June 1, Secretary of Transportation Federico Pena said last week. This complements the ban on smoking on domestic flights, which are 100 percent smoke-free.

By comparison, smoking was permitted on virtually all domestic and international flights as recently as eight years ago. In April 1988, smoking was banned on scheduled domestic U.S. airline flights of two hours or less.

The Secretary added that the Department of Transportation, in order to better serve customers seeking smoke-free travel, plans to establish a site on the Internet's World Wide Web listing countries served by non-smoking flights.

Secretary Pena said, "The Department is committed to the goal of achieving smoke-free travel in all modes of public transportation. Now, due to the efforts of DOT and voluntary bans by airlines, it is possible to fly from the United States to every continent in the world without breathing tobacco smoke.

"We applaud the continuing commitment of the airlines to improving the environment for their passengers and employees," the Secretary added. "We will continue to work with carriers and other governments to expand smoke-free air travel."

Secretary Pena said that at an April 10-12 meeting in Santiago, Chile, Western Hemisphere transportation ministers agreed to strive to achieve the goal of the International Civil Aviation Organization (ICAO) to ban smoking on all international flights by July 1, 1996. He also noted that Continental Airlines recently banned smoking on all of its flights within the Western Hemisphere.

In November 1994, the United States, Canada and Australia agreed to ban smoking on flights operated by their airlines among the three countries. In January 1995, the department granted antitrust immunity to eight U.S. and foreign airlines to discuss a mutual smoking ban on transatlantic flights.

Delta Air Lines has adopted a worldwide smoke-free policy and Trans World Airlines recently decided to ban smoking on flights to France, Germany and the United Kingdom. As of June 1, the following carriers will introduce no-smoking flights as follows:

USAir will prohibit smoking on all flights.

American Airlines will ban smoking on all of its flights to and from Europe, the Caribbean and a number of destinations in Mexico.

United Airlines will prohibit smoking on all of its flights across the Atlantic and within Europe except for those between Washington's Dulles Airport and Milan, Italy. United also will provide smoke-free services to all of its destinations across the Pacific and within Asia, except for selected flights through Tokyo.

In addition, Lufthansa German Airlines recently prohibited smoking on flights between Germany and the United States and Finnair on all U.S. — Finland services.

TORNADO AUTHOR TO GO ONLINE

From Gilco Publishing

■(NORMAN, OK) Author Richard Bedard will be the guest for an interactive talk about tornadoes and storm chasers on America Online on May 17 at 7 p.m.

Bedard, the author of In the Shadow of the Tornado, plans to discuss the real motivations and stories of storm-chasing meteorologists, whose fictional exploits are depicted in the recently released movie "Twister."

He is also prepared to answer any of a number of questions about tornadoes from those in the "audience." AOL subscribers who want to attend should go to AOL Live. Bedard's talk will be held in the News Room.

In the Shadow of the Tornado (Gilco Publishing, April 1996) visits Oklahoma for a look at nature's most terrible storm. The book features a gripping recreation of the Woodward tornado of 1947, the deadliest in state history, and traces the history of the severe weather warning system and the sudden rise in popularity of the hobby of storm chasing.

Bedard lives in Norman, and is a 1984 Harvard College graduate and a former daily journalist whose freelance work has appeared in the Christian Science Monitor, Popular Science, and Oklahoma Today. His article "Hail to the Storm Chasers," published in the May 1996 issue of Oklahoma Today, is a wide-ranging treatment of this dramatic outdoor pursuit.

MISS AMERICA TO CARRY OLYMPIC TORCH

From Yale News

■(YALE, OK) Miss America 1996, Shawntel Smith, will carry the Olympic Torch in her home state May 18 as a segment of her national speaking tour across the nation.

A Muldrow native, Shawntel Smith has expressed her enthusiasm over being invited to this rural community to participate in the Olympic Torch run.

"I am delighted to serve as a catalyst to emphasize the significance of this gathering in Atlanta, GA of the world's greatest athletes," she said.

She will serve as Grand Marshal of a 2:00 p.m. Western Day Parade through downtown Yale and later carry the torch past the Jim Thorpe Home, the only property ever owned by the 1912 Olympian.

Other activities will include a luncheon sponsored by Yale's Volunteer Fire Department, an arts and crafts fair, softball tournament and baby pageant.

Formal ceremonies will begin at 5:45 p.m. in Jim Thorpe Park. Miss Smith, Sen. J. Berry Harrison, D-Fairfax, and Rep. Dale Wells, D-Cushing, will headline a welcoming ceremony that will include the 145 Oklahoma National Guard Band and Oklahoma Parachute Club.

The Olympic Torch, accompanied by an 18-vehicle caravan, will arrive in Jim Thorpe Park at 6:30 p.m.

Following a formal presentation of the torch, Miss America will carry the torch through Yale until the entourage leaves for an observance scheduled at Stillwater.

HB1066 Principal Author(s): Monson, Angela; Sadler, Al Expands the definition of "licensed mental health professional" to include licensed marital and family therapists as defined in Section 1923.2 of Title 59 of the Oklahoma Statutes.; Effective Date: 11/01/96. 04/29/96 Governor Action - Veto

GOVERNOR'S VETO MESSAGE: (04/29/96) This is to advise you that on this date, pursuant to the authority vested in me, I have VETOED HB1066. This bill diminishes the current safeguards to assure the protection of the public and the mentally ill from potentially inaccurate mental health evaluation by underqualified persons.

HB2239 Principal Author(s): Bell, Jack; Erwin, Randall L. Modifies language relating to fishing and game licenses.; Effective Date: 11/01/96. 04/29/96 Governor Action - Veto

GOVERNOR'S VETO MESSAGE: (04/29/96) This is to advise you that on this date, pursuant to the powers vested in me, I have VETOED HB2239. This bill encourages infringement on personal property rights of citizens. In addition, the provisions of this legislation could result in an adverse effect on certain streams in our state.

HB2360 Principal Author(s): Henry, Brad; Weaver, Robert E.; Directs the Department of Public Safety and the Oklahoma Tax Commission to conduct a study relating to the regulation and licensing of jet ski and boat operators in the state; requires a report of the findings to be submitted to the Speaker of the House, the President Pro Tempore of the Senate and the Governor.; Effective Date: 11/01/96. 04/09/96, Governor Action - Veto.

GOVERNOR'S VETO MESSAGE: (04/09/96) This is to advise you that on this date, pursuant to the authority vested in me, I have VETOED HB2360 because the provisions of this bill would limit which state agencies would be eligible to be involved in efforts to address a problem that involves several areas of state concern including not only the need for regulatory fees and regulation of water safety, but also potentially environmental concerns and the Oklahoma tourism industry. Limiting participation could result in less than accurate and complete recommendations for resolution of the problem to be addressed.

HB2621 (05/07/96) Principal Author(s): Dickerson, Larry; Paulk, William; Enacts the State Employees Fair Labor Relations Act. 05/07/96, Governor Action - Veto. GOVERNOR'S VETO MESSAGE: (05/08/96) This is to advise you that on this date, pursuant to the authority vested in me, I have VETOED HB2621. It has been necessary on more than one occasion for me to Veto provisions of law which grant individual private entities special privileges not available to all private entities. HB2621 grants the right to use state property for non-state purposes by a non-governmental entity. Such requirement violates constitutional restrictions. Currently, there exists private entities that have state employee members and that appear and lobby for state employees. State employees can join or no, and participate or not as they choose. By this action a state employee will not be prevented from participating in these or other types of private organizations.

HB2707 Principal Author(s): Monson, Angela; Roberts, Larry D.; States that prior to Jan. 1, 1997 the Board of Trustees of the Oklahoma Public Employees Retirement System shall establish rules and procedures enabling any participating employer to also participate in the Oklahoma Public Employees Deferred Compensation Plan; restricts multiple deferred compensation plans.; Effective Date: 07/01/96 Emergency. 04/23/96, Governor Action - Veto.

GOVERNOR'S VETO MESSAGE: (04/23/96) This is to advise you that on this date pursuant to the authority vested in me, I have VETOED HB2707. This bill places an unnecessarily restrictive limit on the ability of local governmental entities to participate in deferred compensation plans. In addition, there is an additional cost to the Oklahoma Public Employees Retirement System which has not been contemplated in the submitted proposed budget placed.

HB2822 Principal Author(s): Hamilton, James E.; Haney, Enoch Kelly; Hobson, Cal; Steidley, Dwayne; Authorizes the Department of Corrections to spend $1,000,000 of the interest earned from investment of the proceeds of specified bonds for the payment of specified infrastructure repairs.; Emergency. 04/01/96, Governor Action - Line Item Veto.

GOVERNOR'S (LINE ITEM) VETO MESSAGE: (04/01/96) This is to advise you that on this date pursuant to the authority vested in me, I have VETOED one section in HB2822 because the item in this bill appropriating funds for "...addressing additional needs in the Appellate Program..." lacks sufficient details to support the amount stated. The item vetoed is found in Section 14 of the bill.

HB2982 Principal Author(s): Cain, Bernest; Thomas, Tommy Abolishes the Oklahoma Basic Health Benefits Board. Transfers authority of OK Basic Health Benefits Board to the Oklahoma Health Care Authority after July 1, 1996. Provides for membership of the Oklahoma Health Care Authority Board.; Effective Date: 09/01/96. 04/29/96 Governor Action - Veto. GOVERNOR'S VETO MESSAGE: (04/29/96) This is to advise you that, pursuant to the powers vested in me, I have VETOED HB2982. This bill fails to address the problem of the violation of Section 1 of Article IV of the Oklahoma Constitution. The current law provides for a majority of legislative appointment to an executive board which performs administrative duties. This bill does not correct that constitutional infirmity.

SB 876 Principal Author(s): Culver, Bob Ed; Rozell, Herb; Authorizes the Scenic Rivers Commission to acquire additional property for the development and maintenance of scenic river areas. It requires the Oklahoma Scenic Rivers Commission and the Oklahoma Tourism and Recreation Department to give certain public notice; removing requirement for obsolete Commission rules; modifying Scenic Rivers Commission election procedures and appointments. 05/07/96, Governor Action - Veto.

GOVERNOR'S VETO MESSAGE: (05/07/96) This is to advise you that on this date, pursuant to the authority vested in me, I have VETOED SB 876. This bill fails to address the problem of the violation of the Oklahoma Constitution that provides for legislative appointments to an executive board which performs administrative duties. This bill does not correct that constitutional infirmity.

SB 987 Principal Author(s): Adair, Larry; Stipe, Gene; Provides exception for the Department of Transportation pursuant to disclosure of terms of bids. Requires the department to publish all engineering estimates at least 10 days prior to the bid submission closing date. Effective Date: 07/01/96; 05/01/96 Governor Action - Veto.

GOVERNOR'S VETO MESSAGE: (05/01/96) This is to advise you that, pursuant to the powers vested in me, I have VETOED SB987. The procedure provided for in this bill creates an exception, applicable only to the Department of Transportation, to the safeguards relating to the bidding process in this State. The awarding of multi-million tax dollar contracts by a state agency is a serious responsibility which must be carefully regulated and monitored. It is in the best interest of the citizens and taxpayers of this state to keep in place all procedures which assure an equitable and ethical bidding process.

SB 988 Principal Author(s): Dunegan, James; Stipe, Gene; Requires the Dept. of Transportation to issue permits for multi-state oversize and overweight vehicles. Designates specific routes for vehicles operating under such permits. 05/07/96, Governor Action - Veto.

GOVERNOR'S VETO MESSAGE: (05/07/96) This is to advise you that on this date, pursuant to the authority vested in me, I have VETOED SB 988. This bill violates the provisions of the Oklahoma Constitution that delegates authority to regulate certain types of truck permits to a private non-governmental entity. This legislation mandates the Department of Transportation to accept truck weight load limits set by the private entity without regard to concerns about the effect such limits may have on Oklahoma streets, roads, bridges, and highways. Current law authorizes the Department of Transportation to enter into regional truck permit agreements when it is practical and feasible for the state.
