GOODYEAR CEO PRAISES LAWTON FACILITY

By Brandon Beard & Shawn Ashley
Staff Writers

■(GIT) Calling the Goodyear tire plant in Lawton the best in the world and the "crown jewel" of the company's operation, Goodyear President and CEO Samir F. Gibara said his Oklahoma visit Wednesday was to focus on positioning the Oklahoma facility for the future.

"We have a major commitment to Oklahoma...we have every intention of keeping it that way," Gibara said in a meeting with reporters. "The tire industry is becoming a global industry — we need to be in a position to compete with them."

He praised the Legislature for its economic development efforts, saying, however, that such areas as workers' compensation reform still needed some attention. "More can be done," he said.

Reasons for the success of the Lawton facility include its "very modern" equipment and systems personnel. The ability to work together and continuous education also play a key role, he said.

"We consider it a center of excellence." He said recent construction of a Canadian facility was modeled after the Lawton site.

He said skills, knowledge and talent were three keys to the plant's success.

When asked if right-to-work was an issue with Good Year, Gibara said it was not.

Calling Goodyear the last American owned tire company with worldwide interests, Gibara asked the U.S. Congress to "level the playing field" in terms of worldwide competitiveness. "Some other worldwide competitors get assistance from their governments," he said. He cited such other companies as the Japanese owned Bridgestone and the French owned Michelin tire companies.

His message was much the same when he spoke to a joint session of lawmakers in the House chamber.

In addition to praising Lawton, the Goodyear facility there and the state legislature, Gibara stressed the point that the world's economies were now linked, rather than independent and that competition crosses city limits, state lines and national borders.

"In the global economy, competition is not just North America against Japan against Europe. It is also Lawton against Topeka against Tokyo," he said.

The participants in those competitive environments, Gibara told the legislature, is always changing.

"I think change is here to stay," Gibara said. "We need to not only be responsive to change, we need to preempt change."

Gibara visited the capitol while on his way to Lawton, where he was scheduled to attend the Lawton Chamber of Commerce and Industry's annual banquet Wednesday night.

GOVERNOR SIGNS SIMULCASTING BILL

By Shawn Ashley
Staff Writer

■(GIT) Governor Frank Keating on Wednesday praised the efforts of some state lawmakers and the state's horse racing industry for being able to fashion an agreement for racetracks to carry full-card simulcasts.

The comments came during a special ceremony in which the governor signed SB1167, by Rep. Dwayne Steidley, D-Claremore, and Sen. Lewis Long, D-Glenpool. Keating was surrounded by representatives of the horse racing industry, as well as Remington Park.

"I think this is extremely important for the horse industry of Oklahoma and certainly for the racing industry," Keating said, calling the measure a prosperity issue.

Rep. Cal Hobson, D-Lexington and a co-author of the measure, also praised the efforts of those in the horse racing industry for making the bill a reality. "This shows what the legislature and industry can do when they put their differences aside," he said.

Long added, "Thankfully, all the groups were able to reach a compromise for the entire industry and all the state's tracks."

Co-author Rep. Fred Stanley, D-Madill, too, called the measure a cooperative effort.

Under the terms of the measure, Oklahoma horse tracks can offer up to six full-card simulcasts during a racing day. Two of those cards can be offered while the track is holding its own races.

When there is no live racing, tracks can simulcast six full-card, out-of-state races for up to one-half the number of days the track holds live races.

"... competition is not just North America against Japan against Europe. It is also Lawton against Topeka against Tokyo"

POLITICS BECOMES ISSUE IN BILL'S DEBATE

By Shawn Ashley
Staff Writer

■ (GIT) Politics took center stage on Wednesday when House members were asked to consider a bill designed to prohibit the involvement of public officials in tax exempt bond issues.

Rep. Dan Webb, R-Oklahoma City, asked that HB1238, by Rep. Ed Crocker, D-Norman, be sent back to conference committee for further consideration. If that happened, Webb indicated, he would ask that the committee be instructed to add provisions that would prohibit the chair and vice chair of state recognized political parties from participating in certain programs, such as the Ag Link and Business Link loan programs.

The proposal drew immediate negative response from members of the House, particularly Democrats.

Tulsa Democrat Russ Roach asked Webb what authority, if any, lawmakers had to apply a law to specific private entities.

"We would be skating on thin ice," Webb admitted. "But the question is if we are going to err, is it better to err for the benefit of taxpayers or those involved in the political process?"

"I believe it's in the best interest to err in the interest of taxpayers."

Rep. Dan Webb

Asked by Roach why his proposal targeted four specific people, Webb said, "They wield the greatest influence on the process. If you want to include others, I would certainly go along with you."

Rep. Ron Kirby, D-Lawton, pressed Webb about whether he would vote for the bill if it's amended or if he was simply trying to kill the bill.

"If the language is good and inclusive," Webb responded, "I would vote for it."

As Kirby pressed for more information concerning Webb's proposal, the representatives entered a heated exchange that ended with Kirby accusing Webb of avoiding his questions and Webb claiming he had answered them.

A comparatively subdued Crocker told House members that the bill had been before them for some 15 months in an effort to address what he said he felt was a serious problem. Webb, he said, "is just trying to hitch a ride."

When the issue of accepting the bill's second conference committee report was put to a vote, House members voted 63-36 along party lines and the bill was put before them for final consideration.

Without further debate, the bill received a 93-6 passing vote.

KEATING, NICKLES: DOLE MADE RIGHT CHOICE

By Shawn Ashley
Staff Writer

■ (GIT) Oklahoma Governor Frank Keating and Senator Don Nickles joined other Republicans from across the nation in supporting Senator Bob Dole's decision to leave his seat in the US Senate and to devote himself full-time to his presidential campaign.

"If Bob Dole wants to be president," Keating told reporters in an impromptu news conference, "then he needs to be out there speaking, talking one-on-one with people and traveling around the country. This was a necessary step for Dole to give viability to his presidential campaign."

The governor, who is the honorary state chair of Dole's campaign, said without the move, the Republican candidate for president was "treading water."

Dole had been expected to give up his post as Senate Majority Leader. His decision to step down from the Senate took many by surprise, including the governor.

Keating, however, called the move a sound decision for both Dole's presidential bid. Although a Dole supporter, the governor said, "There is a problem in the Dole campaign — People don't know who Bob Dole really is."

That, he added, is why the now former Kansas senator needs to devote his full energies to the presidential campaign.

"The Senate," Nickles said, "is losing a great legislator, but the nation will be the winner. "Bob Dole has done a remarkable job as majority leader and he will make a remarkable president. This is a bold and courageous move on the part of Senator Dole. He's going to invest everything he's got in this campaign and I like that. It's the right thing to do."

Keating agreed, comparing Dole's decision to that of the Spanish explorer Cortez to burn his ships at the coast. "This means there is not turning back," the governor said.

Nickles, ironically, is considered one of the leading candidates to fill Dole's seat as Senate majority leader. Choosing Nickles, the governor said, would be a smart move for Republicans, many of whom consider the Oklahoma senator a solid conservative.

"That would be an honor that would rival Carl Albert serving as Speaker of the House," Keating said.

FROM THE SENATE FLOOR, WEDNESDAY, MAY 15

By Brandon Beard
Staff Writer

■(GIT) The Senate considered the following measures on Wednesday, May 15, 1996:

HB1185, by Sen. Lewis Long, D-Glenpool, makes it a felony for a prisoner to place feces, urine, semen, saliva or blood on a state employee. It also authorizes any sheriff's office or campus police agency to dispose of, by public sale, destruction or donation, or transfer for use to a governmental subdivision, personal property which has come into its possession.

After adopting the bill's conference committee report, members passed the measure with a vote of 44 to 0.

HB2065, by Sen. Cal Hobson, D-Lexington, creates the Oklahoma Athletic Trainers Act.

After adopting the bill's conference committee report, members passed the measure and its emergency clause with a vote of 44 to 2.

HB2182, by Sen. Gene Stipe, D-McAlester, states legislative intent to protect the rights of child witnesses. It also states considerations that must be made before deciding to accept the testimony of a child witness.

After adopting the bill's conference committee report, members passed the measure with a vote of 45 to 0.

HB2379, by Sen. Howard Hendrick, R-Bethany, states that restricted driver's licenses shall be come nonrenewable and provides conditions upon which the restricted status of said license may be removed.

After adopting the bill's conference committee report, members passed the measure and its emergency clause with a vote of 44 to 0.

HB2408, by Sen. J. Berry Harrison, D-Fairfax, modifies language relating to the Rural Water, Sewer, Gas, and Solid Waste Management District Acts.

sioners of the sale by auction of properties acquired by the county under the provisions of the resale tax laws.

Under the bill, property that had taxes owed upon it, could be sold for less than the amount owed.

"This is not a new idea," said Sen. Gene Stipe, D-McAlester. He added that the original law preventing such a sale was to prevent phony land deals. "We are running the risk of creating a...fault that doesn't exist."

Sen. Mark Snyder, R-Edmond, disagreed with Stipe, saying such sales would be beneficial to counties.

"The ability to take less than the taxes owed would be a great benefit to the counties," he said, "because there are small pieces of property that won't sell for the amount owed."

After adopting the bill's conference committee report, members passed the measure and its emergency clause with a vote of 40 to 0.

HB2642, by Sen. Dave Herbert, D-Midwest City, exempts the sale of Oklahoma Today magazine and production of merchandise for resale from the Central Purchasing Act. It states that specified services for the production of Oklahoma Today magazine shall also be exempt. It also extends petty cash fund usage to include the payment of bank charges and the purchasing of beverage and vending licenses.

After passing the bill's conference committee report, members passed the measure and its emergency clause with a vote of 47 to 1.

HB2796, by Sen. Jerry Smith, R-Tulsa, provides that recordable instruments shall be written and printed in English and presented in a certain manner.

sion to provide notices and rules.

After adopting the bill's conference committee report, members passed the measure and its emergency clause with a vote of 33 to 10.

SB1082, by Sen. Trish Weedn, D-Purcell, grants authority for certain part time employment within specified cities and towns by off-duty police officers.

After adopting the bill's conference committee report, members passed the measure and its emergency clause with a vote of 48 to 0.

SB1147, by Sen. Bernice Shedrick, D-Stillwater, prohibits the use of accident reports for commercial purposes.

After adopting the bill's conference committee report, members passed the measure with a vote of 37 to 9.

Members also rejected the conference committee reports for SBs 1152 and 1227 and HB2362, requesting further conference.

The Senate is scheduled to reconvene at 8:30 a.m. on Thursday, May 16, 1996.

MORE FROM THE HOUSE FLOOR, WEDNESDAY, MAY 15

By Shawn Ashley
Staff Writer

■(GIT) Rep. Calvin Anthony, D-Stillwater, took time on Wednesday to bid his colleagues goodbye as the legislature gears up for what is expected to be its last 10 days of work.

Anthony has accepted a position in Washington, DC, as head of the 75,000-member National Association of Retail Druggists and will not seek reelection in the fall.

A two-term member of the House of Representatives, Anthony entered the House in 1992 as a member of the so-called Dirty Dozen, a group of 12 freshmen lawmakers.

"I have appreciated your friendship and the opportunity to serve with you," Anthony told his fellow lawmakers who later gave him a standing ovation.

INHOFE INTRODUCES BILL TO REFORM CONGRESSIONAL PENSIONS

From US Sen. James Inhofe

■(WASHINGTON) U.S. Senator James M. Inhofe (R-Okla.) announces the introduction of SB1776, legislation to limit pension benefits for members of Congress.

"This bill addresses the two most frequent appeals people make to Congress," Inhofe said. "First, that we have term limits, and second, that we have meaningful reform of the pension system. This bill does both and resolves these appeals forever. By limiting pensions, it will take away the financial incentive members have to stay insulated in Washington without going out and making a living in the real world."

Inhofe spoke at a Capitol press conference where he was joined by other co-sponsors in the House and Senate and by representatives of several citizens groups supporting the legislation. An identical bill has already been introduced in the House by Rep.

REID-NICKLES BILL DENIES PENSIONS TO FELONS

From U.S. Sen. Don Nickles, R-Okla.

■(WASHINGTON) U.S. Senators Harry Reid, D-NV, and Don Nickles, R-OK, are sponsoring legislation to cut off federal pensions to members of Congress convicted of felonies committed while in office.

"Taxpayers should not be paying retirement salaries to former members of Congress who have recklessly violated the public trust," Reid said. "If a congressman or senator becomes a convicted felon, they should relinquish their benefits gained through public office."

"Those who created the institution of the Congress of the United State would have been shocked to learn that former members convicted of felonies continue to draw their taxpayer-financed pensions," Nickles said.

Sen. Don Nickles

"The ability of the Congress to fulfill its constitutional responsibilities is damaged enough whenever a member is convicted of a felony. That damage is increased immeasurably when our citizens learn that the convicted members continue to draw their pensions. This bill will end that practice."

The Reid-Nickles Pension Forfeiture Act would halt the disbursement of pensions to members of Congress convicted of felonies related to their official duties. Crimes that would result in a loss of retirement benefits under this Act include bribery, perjury, and fraud. All crimes listed under the act are punishable by prison terms of more than one year.

"Someone who criminally abuses the power granted to them by the public should not be rewarded with a pension from the public they betrayed," Reid said. "Committing a felony while serving in Congress is a serious breach of duty and honor. This legislation is one small way to restore people's faith in the federal legislature."

HB2548, by Rep. Mark Seikel, D-Harrah, modifying language related to the Department of Human Services and claims or payroll, received a 94-0 passing vote, following the adoption of the bill's conference committee report.

Also receiving a passing vote was HB2584, by Rep. Randy Beutler, D-Elk City, which requires the approval of county commissioners for the sale by auction of properties acquired by the county under the provisions of the resale tax laws. The bill received a 99-0 passing vote with an emergency clause after House members gave their unanimous consent to the acceptance of its second conference committee report.

House members accepted the conference committee report for and gave a 87-12 passing vote to HB2642, by Rep. Bill Mitchell, D-Lindsay, exempting the sale of Oklahoma Magazine and production of merchandise for resale from the Central Purchasing Act; stating that specified services for the production of Oklahoma Today magazine shall also be exempt from the act; and extending petty cash fund usage to include the payment of bank charges and the purchasing of beverages and vending licenses. The measure includes an emergency clause.

HB2796, by Rep. Jari Askins, D-Duncan, received a passing vote of 99-0, following the adopting of the its second conference committee report. The measure provides that recordable instruments be written and printed in English and presented in a certain manner.

HB2971, by Rep. Russ Roach, D-Tulsa, clarifying language pertaining to the Oklahoma Police Pension and Retirement System, received a passing vote of 98-1 with an emergency clause following the adoption of the bill's conference committee report.

SB74, by Rep. Frank Davis, R-Guthrie, adding runaway child to the crime of contributing to delinquency, defining runaway child and criminalizing the harboring of runaway children, received a passing vote of 99-0 with an emergency clause following the adoption of its conference committee report.

SB680, the so-called bear wrestling bill, by Rep. Gary Stottlemire, D-Tulsa, received a passing vote of 99-0 with an emergency clause after the adoption of its conference committee report.

The bill prohibits bear wrestling and horse tripping events, as well as setting punishment for any individual who commits any assault and battery against a current or former spouse, an individual with whom the defendant has had a child or former resident of the defendant's household.

SB719, by Rep. Larry Rice, D-Pryor, modifying the definition of record as it relates to the Oklahoma Open Records Act to include data files created by or used with computer software; modifying statutory references; exempting the Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation from furnishing certain criminal history information, received a passing vote of 98-1 following the adoption of the bill's conference committee report.

SB1270, by Rep. Shelby Satterfield, D-Tulsa, defining wireless telephone company as it applies to the Nine-One-One Emergency Number Act, received a passing vote of 92-6 with an emergency clause following the adoption of its conference committee report.

A motion to reconsider the vote by which HB2408 passed on Tuesday was tabled by a vote of 67-25. That means the bill is now headed to the Senate for consideration.

By unanimous consent, the House rejected the conference committee reports for the following House measures and granted additional conferences: 1621, 2059, 2143, 2512, 2812, 2893 and 2959.

HCR1113 was withdrawn from the calendar and assigned to the House's Public Health Committee.

PROMISING FIRST YEAR FOR "OPERATION RESTORE TRUST" INITIATIVE

From U.S. Dept. of Health & Human Services

■(WASHINGTON) Health and Human Services Secretary Donna E. Shalala marked the first-year anniversary of HHS' anti-fraud initiative, Operation Restore Trust, saying new approaches in the pilot program have already produced $42.3 million in recoveries. This constitutes a return of $10 in recoveries for every $1 spent on the project.

"Operation Restore Trust has pioneered new partnerships within the federal government, new cooperation with states, and new ways of targeting and stopping fraud in the Medicare and Medicaid programs," Secretary Shalala said. "In its first year, Operation Restore Trust has proved its value, and the President wants to extend its reach to every state in the nation."

With first-year targeted demonstration project funds of $4.09 million, Operation Restore Trust has produced $42.3 million in restitutions, fines, settlements and recovery of overpayments. This includes $24.5 million returning to the Medicare Trust Fund from criminal restitutions, fines and recoveries; $14.1 million returning to the Trust Fund as a result of civil judgments, settlements and penalties; and $3.7 million returned to the Treasury as a result of services inappropriately billed or medically unnecessary services rendered.

HHS Inspector General June Gibbs Brown said that "Operation Restore Trust is proving what it was meant to prove: that a new focus on fraud and abuse, and new cooperative approaches, can help us to better protect federal Medicare and Medicaid dollars."

The initiative was announced by President Clinton last May at the White House Conference on Aging. It is aimed specifically at fraud, waste and abuse in three high-growth areas of Medicare and Medicaid: home health agencies, nursing homes, and durable medical equipment suppliers.

Inspector General Brown said that out of 272 Medicare and Medicaid cases currently under investigation in the three targeted payment areas, 244 are new cases that were opened as a result of the Operation Restore Trust initiative. She said 64 of the cases are joint efforts with other law enforcement agencies.

Operation Restore Trust is focused on five states (New York, Florida, Illinois, Texas, and California) which account for 38.5 percent of Medicaid beneficiaries and 34 percent of Medicare beneficiaries.

Bruce Vladeck, administrator of the Health Care Financing Administration, said, "The object of Operation Restore Trust is not only to punish fraud and abuse, and to recover funds, but more important to identify areas of vulnerability and prevent fraud before it happens."

Vladeck said that a number of significant potential program changes have been identified as a result of Operation Restore Trust, which could result in substantial savings by preventing fraud, waste, and abuse before they occur. The potential changes are being developed as legislative, regulatory, and administrative actions.

The HHS Office of Inspector General, The Health Care Financing Administration and the Administration on Aging are the three agencies within HHS which are jointly carrying out the Operation Restore Trust initiative. The project has also involved an intergovernmental team comprised of federal and state personnel, including the Department of Justice and the United States Attorneys' offices across the country.

Gil Gutknecht (R-Minn.).

The Inhofe bill would limit a new House or Senate member's ability to accrue pension benefits to a maximum of 12 years in each body. Current members would be limited to a maximum of 12 years of pension accrual in addition to what they already have. If passed, the bill would take effect in 1997 at the beginning of the new 105th Congress.

Inhofe pointed out that the current average Congressional pension is $46,789, while some pensions for very long-serving members are in the $100,000 range and more. Under this new bill, the pension benefit for a new member would be $27,254.

"This bill will change the incentives in the current system," Inhofe said. "No longer will people in college contemplate making a lifelong career of going to Washington to direct other peoples' lives. They won't if they know up front that it is not going to be a ticket to $100,000 pension. This reform will have the same effect as term limits. Though people could still serve longer if they chose, the financial incentive to do so will not be there."

FDA APPROVES FIRST HIV HOME TEST SYSTEM

From U.S. Dept. of Health & Human Services

■(WASHINGTON) The Food and Drug Administration Tuesday approved the first HIV test system that includes collection of blood samples at home. Until now, all HIV tests, whether using blood or saliva samples, were done under the supervision of a health professional at medical facilities, clinics, physicians' offices or blood establishments. The new testing system is comprised of three integrated components: an over-the-counter home blood collection kit, HIV-1 antibody testing at a certified lab, and a test result center that provides test results, counseling and referral anonymously.

The test kit system is called the Confide HIV Testing Service, developed and marketed by Direct Access Diagnostics, a subsidiary of Johnson and Johnson, Bridgewater, NJ.

More than 60 percent of Americans at risk for contracting HIV have not been tested, according to estimates by the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention.

"Too many Americans do not know their HIV status. Knowledge is power, and power leads to prevention," said HHS Secretary Donna E. Shalala. "The availability of a home test should empower more people to learn their HIV status and protect themselves and their loved ones."

"We are confident that this new home system can provide accurate results while assuring patient anonymity and appropriate counseling," said Commissioner of Food and

Since 1980, there have been 18 congressional convicts.

Reid is chairman of the Democratic Policy Committee and Nickles chairs the Republican Policy Committee. Nickles and Reid intend to use their Senate leadership positions to gain bipartisan support and move their bill through the Senate. Companion legislation to the Pension Forfeiture Act is pending in the House.

Under current law, pensions can be taken away upon conviction of certain felonies involving national security, such as treason or espionage while in office. The Reid-Nickles bill expands the list of felonies to include crimes relating to the abuse of public office.

STUDY OFFERS NONSURGICAL OPTION FOR TREATING GUM DISEASE

From U.S. Dept. of Health & Human Services

■(WASHINGTON) Persons with severe periodontal disease may be able to avoid surgery by taking antibiotics, a new study shows. Dental scientists report that scaling and root planing (deep cleaning of teeth above and below the gum) combined with short-term use of oral and locally applied antibiotics dramatically reduced the need for gum surgery and tooth extractions by 88 percent. The regimen spared 690 of 783 teeth initially recommended for surgery or extraction.

Periodontal disease is a progressive infection that, when untreated, can destroy the gums and other supporting structures of the teeth and can lead to tooth loss. The condition is typically treated by scaling and root planning (also called debridement) to clear away pockets of harmful bacteria that cause periodontal disease. When this is not successful, surgery is usually recommended. Surgery involves lifting back the gums, removing the hardened plaque buildup, then stitching the gums back in place.

In a study supported by the national Institute of Dental Research, Dr. Walter J. Loesche of the University of Michigan School of Dentistry, Dr. James Giordano at the University of Detroit/Mercy School of Dentistry, and their colleagues used debridement plus antibiotics to significantly decrease levels of these damaging bacteria and reverse the majority of what were inevitable surgical cases. Dr. Loesche commented about the findings, "This antimicrobial regimen not only provides a treatment option for severe periodontal disease, but also brings such treatment into the realm of greater accessibility for many individuals."

At the outset of the study, 783 teeth had been identified as needing extraction or surgery around the tooth. At its conclusion, only 93 teeth (12 percent) actually needed such treatment. Debridement plus the antimicrobial regimens reduced the need for periodontal surgery by 93 percent, sparing 595 teeth from surgery; and decreased by 67 percent the need for tooth extraction, saving 95 teeth.

Significantly 81 percent of the study participants moved to the maintenance phase without needing any gum surgery or extractions.

The study also showed that doxycycline and metronidazole were comparably effective in reducing the need for gum surgery. The investigators preferred metronidazole, however, because of the lower risk of developing antibiotic resistance.

Follow-up examinations one year later indicated that the benefits of the antimicrobial treatment continued. The research team will follow these patients for five to eight years to determine the long-term benefit of this nonsurgical approach.

These findings were reported in the May issue of the Journal of Oral Surgery, Oral Medicine, Oral Pathology, Oral Radiology, and Endodontics. The research was supported by a grant from the National Institute of Dental Research, one of the federal National Institutes of Health.

Dr. Walter Loesche can be reached through the University of Michigan News and Information Service at 313-764-7260.

Drugs David A. Kessler, M.D. "Science and technology have evolved to the point where we believe the benefits of this new product outweigh the risks."

Technological advances in the accuracy of HIV antibody testing, the availability of treatments for people who are infected but do not yet have symptoms, and the public health benefits that would accrue from more people being aware of their HIV status all contributed to the agency's decision to approve the kit for home use. The decision is consistent with advice that FDA received at a June 1994 meeting of FDA's Blood Products Advisory Committee. At that meeting, the committee concluded that the potential benefits of over-the-counter home specimen collection kits outweighed the potential risks.

After purchasing a kit, a person begins the testing process by reading a pre-test counseling booklet about HIV and AIDS. Using enclosed lancets, the person takes a finger stick blood sample which is placed on a designated area of a test card precoded with a unique identification number.

The test card is mailed in a protective envelope to a certified laboratory for HIV-1 antibody testing. Once instructions are followed and an adequate sample has been sent, people can receive results seven days later by calling a toll-free number.

Although negative results are provided by an automated message, everyone has the opportunity to speak to a counselor. All negative test results include an explanation of the "window" period, the time when people may be HIV-infected but still have negative antibody tests. The window period, in most cases, lasts approximately one month.

Initially, the company will make the kit available for over-the-counter purchase in the state of Texas. The kits will also be sold through a toll-free number in two states, Texas and Florida, for people who would prefer having the kits mailed confidentially to their homes.

Provides for membership of the Oklahoma Health Care Authority Board.; Effective Date: 09/01/96. 04/29/96 Governor Action - Veto

GOVERNOR'S VETO MESSAGE: (04/29/96) This is to advise you that, pursuant to the powers vested in me, I have VETOED HB2982. This bill fails to address the problem of the violation of Section 1 of Article IV of the Oklahoma Constitution. The current law provides for a majority of legislative appointment to an executive board which performs administrative duties. This bill does not correct that constitutional infirmity.

SB 876 Principal Author(s): Culver, Bob Ed; Rozell, Herb; Authorizes the Scenic Rivers Commission to acquire additional property for the development and maintenance of scenic river areas. It requires the Oklahoma Scenic Rivers Commission and the Oklahoma Tourism and Recreation Department to give certain public notice; removing requirement for obsolete Commission rules; modifying Scenic Rivers Commission election procedures and appointments. 05/07/96, Governor Action - Veto.

GOVERNOR'S VETO MESSAGE: (05/07/96) This is to advise you that on this date, pursuant to the authority vested in me, I have VETOED SB 876. This bill fails to address the problem of the violation of the Oklahoma Constitution that provides for legislative appointments to an executive board which performs administrative duties. This bill does not correct that constitutional infirmity.

SB 987 Principal Author(s): Adair, Larry; Stipe, Gene; Provides exception for the Department of Transportation pursuant to disclosure of terms of bids. Requires the department to publish all engineering estimates at least 10 days prior to the bid submission closing date. Effective Date: 07/01/96; 05/01/96 Governor Action - Veto.

GOVERNOR'S VETO MESSAGE: (05/01/96) This is to advise you that, pursuant to the powers vested in me, I have VETOED SB987. The procedure provided for in this bill creates an exception, applicable only to the Department of Transportation, to the safeguards relating to the bidding process in this State. The awarding of multi-million tax dollar contracts by a state agency is a serious responsibility which must be carefully regulated and monitored. It is in the best interest of the citizens and taxpayers of this state to keep in place all procedures which assure an equitable and ethical bidding process.

SB 988 Principal Author(s): Dunegan, James; Stipe, Gene; Requires the Dept. of Transportation to issue permits for multi-state oversize and overweight vehicles. Designates specific routes for vehicles operating under such permits. 05/07/96, Governor Action - Veto.

GOVERNOR'S VETO MESSAGE: (05/07/96) This is to advise you that on this date, pursuant to the authority vested in me, I have VETOED SB 988. This bill violates the provisions of the Oklahoma Constitution that delegates authority to regulate certain types of truck permits to a private non-governmental entity. This legislation mandates the Department of Transportation to accept truck weight load limits set by the private entity without regard to concerns about the effect such limits may have on Oklahoma streets, roads, bridges, and highways. Current law authorizes the Department of Transportation to enter into regional truck permit agreements when it is practical and feasible for the state.

SB 1017 Principal Author(s): Leist, M.C.; Shurden, Frank; States that the Troop Commander in charge of highway patrol troop may designate specified portions of federal aid primary highways and the state highway system in the service area of the troop.

GOVERNOR'S VETO MESSAGE: (05/15/96) This is to advise you that on this date, pursuant to the authority vested in me, I have VETOED SB1017 because it would remove local law enforcement control. This bill would create pockets of the state which would be abandoned by local law enforcement due to lack of authority. The vetoing of this bill is not intended to encourage local governmental entities to act irresponsibly in their annexing practices or in their law enforcement efforts. I am expressing my confidence in responsible local government control.
