

1996 Interim Studies - House

Interim Study 96H-45, Chiropractic Services, Charles Gray

Review issues relating to chiropractic services including: (1) any willing provider laws; (2) prescription authority; (3) minor surgery; (4) other relevant concerns; Public Health Committee.

Interim Study 96H-46, Local Control of Community Services, Sean Voskuhl

Review of the issues included in HB2231; Youth and Family Services Committee.

Interim Study 96H-47, Revision of Title 43A, Mental Health Code, Joe Eddins

Continuation of the 1995 study, to complete the revision and updating of the title; Mental Health Committee.

Interim Study 96H-48, Predatory Sex Offender, Bill Paulk

Study to review Predatory Sex Offender laws (per HB2617); Criminal Justice Committee.

Interim Study 96H-49, Truth in Sentencing, Bill Paulk

Truth in Sentencing (as per final draft by Rep. Steidley) and Interim Study 96H-64, Truth in Sentencing / Community Corrections, Dwayne Steidley

A Special Joint study to evaluate the community corrections recommendations provided in SB1200 and truth in sentencing proposals in HB1138. Purpose is to propose a new bill for 1997 session; Assigned to a special committee comprised of Steidley, Paulk and Reps. Jari Askins, Flint Breckenridge, Bob Ed Culver, Danny Hilliard, Larry Rice, Bill Settle and Opio Toure.

Interim Study 96H-50, Motor Vehicles and Insurance, Jack Bonny

Review insurance and financial responsibility requirements for motor vehicles; Public Safety Committee.

Interim Study 96H-51, Resource Centers, Mark Seikel

Study on the status and impact of downsizing on Northern Resource Center and Greer Center Facility at Enid and Southern Resource Center of Pauls Valley; Human Services Committee.

Interim Study 96H-52, Ritualistic Child Abuse, Mark Seikel

Study to review prohibiting Ritualistic Child Abuse with DHS, Youth & Family and Criminal Justice; Human Services Committee.

Interim Study 96H-53, Corporation Commission Jurisdiction in Guymon-Hugoton Field, Larry Rice

To review the relevancy of the Guymon-Hugoton field rules to current field conditions. Topics to be addressed include infill drilling and proration limits; Assigned to the Commission on Natural Gas Policy.

Interim Study 96H-54, Public Trusts and Tax Exempt Financing, Robert Weaver

Interim study to discuss the disclosure and accountability requirements surrounding Public Trusts and tax exempt financing; Banking and Finance Committee.

Interim Study 96H-55, Inmate Trust Accounts, Robert Weaver

Interim study to discuss the feasibility of exploring funding options for the victims of crime in Oklahoma. The study should address inmate trust accounts and other funding options; Appropriations and Budget Subcommittee on Judiciary and Law Enforcement.

Interim Study 96H-56, Jet Ski and Boating Legislation, Robert Weaver

Interim study pursuant to HCR1110 regarding jet ski and boating legislation, requesting coordination with specified state agencies and proposing legislation; Public Safety Committee.

Interim Study 96H-57, OK Indian Affairs Commission Funding, Robert Weaver

Interim study to discuss the feasibility of various Indian tribes in the State of Oklahoma contributing to the funding of the Oklahoma Indian Affairs Commission; Appropriations and Budget Subcommittee on Health and Social Services.

Interim Study 96H-58, Recreational Vehicle Tags, Fred Perry

Study to discuss recreational vehicle tag costs and taxes; Revenue and Taxation Committee.

Interim Study 96H-59, Millennium 2000 Problem, Fred Perry

Combined with Interim Study 96H-40.

Interim Study 96H-60, OETA, James E. Hamilton

Combined with Interim Study 96H-26.

Interim Study 96H-61, Feasibility of constructing a State Office Building, James E. Hamilton

Identify space being rented in Oklahoma City area by state agencies or Higher Education, determine the amount of annual lease and rent payments being made for such space and investigate the possibility of building one or two new buildings in the Capitol Complex and use rent money for pay out of bond issue; Appropriations and Budget.

Interim Study 96H-62, Sole Source Contract Procedures, James E. Hamilton

To review Sole Source contract procedures involving state agencies and higher education, and to review the Fuelman contract now being administered through the Department of Central Services; Appropriations and Budget.

Interim Study 96H-63, State Banking Regulatory Fees, Abe Deutschendorf, Bob Weaver

A comparative view of charges assessed to the credit unions and banks as it relates to the State Banking regulatory fees; Banking and Finance Committee.

Interim Study 96H-64, Truth in Sentencing / Community Corrections, Dwayne Steidley

Combined with Interim Study 96H-49.

Interim Study 96H-65, Workers' Comp, Chris Hastings

Evaluate the performance of the recent works' comp reform (special session 1994) in relation to its impact on insurance rates and safety programs and results. Look at further reforms in workers' comp to reduce rates; lower risks; and increase safety; Assigned to a special committee comprised of Rep Don Kinnamon, chairman; House Majority Leader Loyd Benson, House Majority Leader Larry Ferguson, Rep. Don McCorkell and Rep Bill Settle.

Interim Study 96H-66, Rules of Conduct, Chris Hastings

Set-up bipartisan committee to outline and create Rules of Conduct on House floor by members / staff / guests; House Committee on Rules.

Interim Study 96H-67, OK Housing Finance Agency, Chris Hastings

Review whether the Oklahoma House Finance Agency (OHFA) is acting in compliance in monitoring and enforcing the rules under the IRS Code under the Low Income Housing Tax Credit Program; Appropriations and Budget.

Interim Study 96H-68, State Insurance Fund, Chris Hastings

Explore the possibility of privatizing the State Insurance Fund; Assigned to a special committee consisting of Kinnamon as chairman, Benson, Hastings, McCorkell, Settle and Reps. Howard Cotner and Fred Morgan.

Interim Study 96H-69, Funding for Aids Research, Don Ross

Appropriations and Budget Subcommittee on Health and Social Services.

Interim Study 96H-70, Impact of Prevention and/or Intervention Programs, Don Ross

The impact of prevention and/or intervention as they relate to Oklahoma's delinquency and youth gang intervention and deterrence grant program; Appropriations and Budget Subcommittee on Health and Social Services.