

Bob's Story: Guardian needed

Bob's son has been appointed as Bob's legal guardian. Bob's father is still alive and in good health.

Question: Does this change your decision about who can establish Bob's SNT?

Answer: Yes. Either Bob's son (Bob's legal guardian) or Bob's father are the likely candidates to establish the SNT. Bob can not establish his own trust, as he does not have capacity.
