

ADD US IN

The Add Us In project offers employment assistance to youth (16-21) with disabilities, including those from under-served communities, such as Native Americans, Latinos, African Americans, Veterans, Women, Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, and Transgender people. Add Us In recognizes that people with disabilities bring value and talent to the workplace.

Add Us In Career Service Coordinators are here to help you get started on the employment pathway. Here is how they can help:

- They will help find the best job for you.
- They start by finding out what talents and interests you have.
- They also provide employment follow-up services as well as identifying community resources.

Get your career started by speaking to a Career Service Coordinator today.

Every day, people
with disabilities
CAN and DO add value to America's workplaces.
