

Contents (continued)

New hire reporting for multi-state employers .....	29
Multi-state employers that choose to report to one state .....	29
Notification to states other than the one to which a multi-state employer chooses to report .....	30
Additional information on new hire reporting .....	30
Unemployment insurance and employers .....	31
Keeping unemployment insurance costs down .....	31
The unemployment process .....	31
Protesting benefits .....	32
Claims, notices and objections .....	32
Mailing protests .....	33
Faxing protests .....	33
Appealing determinations .....	33
Burden of proof .....	34
Non-separation issues .....	34
Voluntary quit .....	35
Determining good cause .....	35
Eligible separations, compelling family circumstances .....	35
Employees working for temporary agencies .....	36
Employees hired for a specific, limited duration of time .....	37
Discharges .....	37
Discharge for refusal to undergo drug and alcohol testing .....	38
Cases involving positive drug or alcohol tests .....	38
Deductible pay .....	39
Able and available for work .....	39
Retirement pay .....	39
Unemployment benefits .....	41
Unemployment benefit compensation .....	41
Qualifying for unemployment benefits .....	41
Base period .....	41
Benefit year .....	41
Valid claim .....	41
Applying for unemployment benefits .....	42
Requirements for receiving unemployment benefits .....	42
Maximum unemployment benefit amounts .....	42