

CLEET is committed to providing strong leadership for law enforcement training and becoming nationally recognized as a leader in law enforcement training, with a state of the art facility. Working as partners with client agencies including state, county and local organizations, CLEET will identify ways that research, training and education can be used to ensure public safety and preserve law and order. The goal of each CLEET staff member is to support and enhance the training services provided by the academy and to maintain an environment of learning and living that is respected and professional.
