

Thin Film Epoxy Issues

- Insufficient heating (3M procedure specify 425 – 488 degrees F - lower temperatures could mean improper curing)
- Over heating during application can be a problem (the coating looks burnt and is unacceptable)
- Poor sandblasting