

Questions to Ask During an Interview

During the interview, you will be deciding if the company is a good place for you to work. Based on the answers to your questions, you will learn about the employer. It is a good idea to write down five or six questions you want to ask based on your research of the company. Below are examples of questions you might ask:

- How do you describe a typical day on the job?
- How would you describe the work environment?
- Do your employees work individually or as a team?
- How are employee performance reviews done?
- What are the promotion possibilities?
- What is the general management style with regard to customer service, and employees?
- How would I be trained or introduced to the job?
- Does the company have a promote-from-within policy?
- What further education or training does the company consider important?

Look for a match between the company and your goals and needs.
