

INFORMED CHOICES

Services to the Deaf and Hard of Hearing

People with hearing loss have the ability and right to make decisions about their lives and work.

The responsibility of DRS' Services to the Deaf and Hard of Hearing is to provide all the information available so they can make decisions that are best for themselves and for their families.

People know themselves best. We strive to make them their own experts through information and empowerment.

WAYS WE ASSIST

Services can include:

- Career counseling and guidance
- Vocational evaluation
- Job placement
- Assistive technology devices
- Interpreter and captioning services
- Training
- Social Security benefit planning
- Transition school-to-work

Interpreter Certification and Resource Center (ICRC)

Our staff administers the certification process for interpreters for the state of Oklahoma.

Qualifications to become a certified interpreter may include:

- Education.
- Expressive and receptive sign language proficiency.
- Professionalism in the support of the Code of Ethics.

