

- f. Provides technical help to large public and private irrigation consumers and recommends improved irrigation practices and landscape alterations.
- g. Provides technical help to industrial and commercial consumers.
- h. Conducts seminars and conferences to demonstrate water saving techniques in the garden.

As part of the consumer education program, MMWD has sponsored a low water-using garden at the Marin County Civic Center.