

GUIDEBOOK FOR REPORTING LOOTING

Procedures differ in reporting looting/vandalism depending on whether you have discovered this on Indian, federal, state, or private land. If the vandalism is occurring on Indian or federal land, the Archeological Resource Protection Act is the legal mechanism for handling the vandalism. If you find the vandalism/looting on state land, then the State Antiquities Act is the legal basis. If you discover evidence of vandalism on private land, the appropriate contact is the landowner—unless human remains are also present, then the County Sheriff should be notified (and the state burial disturbance law applies).

CORPS OF ENGINEERS

There are some 20 Corps of Engineers lakes in Oklahoma. However, due to budget issues and the war in the Middle East, many lakes no longer have rangers. Thus, the most direct route to report vandalism at one of the COE lakes is to contact their historic preservation staff in Tulsa. Their numbers are:

Ken Shingleton 918 669-7661 Michelle Horn 918 669-7642 Holly Smith 918 669-4397

Corps of Engineers Lakes

Arkansas River	Arcadia	Broken Bow	Birch Creek
Canton	Copan	Eufaula	Fort Gibson
Fort Supply	Hulah	Hugo	Kaw
Keystone	Oologah	Optima	Pine Creek
Robert S. Kerr	Sardis	Skiatook	Tenkiller
Texoma	Waurika	Webbers Falls	Wister

BUREAU OF RECLAMATION

The Bureau of Reclamation is the other principal federal lake manager in Oklahoma. The BOR manages six lakes in Oklahoma—most of which are in western Oklahoma. The contact for the BOR properties is:

Bob Blasing 405 470-4814

Bureau of Reclamation Lakes

Altus/Lugert	Fort Cobb	Foss	McGee Creek
Thunderbird	Tom Steed

(note: Lake of the Arbuckles was originally a BOR lake but was subsequently transferred to the National Park Service)

BUREAU OF INDIAN AFFAIRS

The Bureau of Indian Affairs is responsible for managing trust lands in Oklahoma. Thus, if you find an archaeological site that has been vandalized or human remains exposed, the BIA would be the lead federal agency on Indian trust land to address this. The BIA in Oklahoma is divided into two regional offices:

Southern Plains Regional Office: John Worthington 405

Eastern Oklahoma Regional Office: Larry Haikey 918 781-4642

US FOREST SERVICE

There are three holdings by the US Forest Service in Oklahoma: the Rita Blanca National Grasslands in Cimarron County, the Black Kettle National Grasslands in Roger Mills County, and the Oklahoma Ranger District in Le Flore and McCurtain Counties. The two national grasslands are managed by the Cibola National Forest in Albuquerque and the Ouachita NF by the Ouachita National Forest in Hot Springs. Contacts for the Forest Service lands are:

Oklahoma Ranger District: Bertrand Pelletier 580 494-6402 ext 117

Ouachita National Forest: Meeks Etchieson 501 321-5252

Black Kettle & Rita Blanca National Grasslands: Cliff Nicoll 505 346-3833

US FISH & WILDLIFE SERVICE

The Fish and Wildlife Service has a number of refuges across Oklahoma. They are as follows:

Deep Fork
Tishomingo

Little River
Washita

Salt Plains
Wichita Mountains

Sequoyah

The cultural resources are administrated from the Albuquerque Regional Office

Dave Siegel 505 248-7396

NATIONAL PARK SERVICE

The National Park Service administers the Chickasaw National Recreation Area and the Lake of the Arbuckles with administrative offices in Sulphur. Although there is not a cultural resources liaison with the NPS, the environmental coordinator is:

Precious Peoples 580 622-7262

OKLAHOMA DEPARTMENT OF PARKS & TOURISM

The Oklahoma Department of Parks & Tourism has numerous recreation areas throughout Oklahoma. Listed below are some of the larger parks.

Alabaster Caverns	Black Mesa	Beaver Dunes	Boiling Springs
Little Sahara	Osage Hills	Roman Nose	Lake Eucha
Spavinaw	Spavinaw	Western Hills	Red Rock Canyon
Lake Thunderbird	Arrowhead	Great Plains	Robbers Cave
Lake Murray	Beavers Bend

There is not a specific contact for Parks & Tourism but most if not all parks have resident rangers that oversee the parks and can be found on park grounds.

OKLAHOMA DEPARTMENT OF WILDLIFE CONSERVATION

The Oklahoma Department of Wildlife Conservation oversees a large number of wildlife management areas in Oklahoma. Some of these tracts also overlap with Corps of Engineers and Bureau of Reclamation lakes. Because of the large number of areas managed, it is difficult to identify contact individuals for each management area. Instead, a list of game wardens by county has been compiled. Game wardens are empowered as law enforcement agents and may be called on in cases of site vandalism on wildlife lands or other state lands. The following lists include the various wildlife management areas and county game wardens.

COUNTY SHERIFFS IN OKLAHOMA

The above list is inclusive of all the Oklahoma County Sheriff's offices. The county sheriff law enforcement authorities are expansive. Thus, they can handle most law enforcement issues on state and/or private land and may have jurisdiction on federal and Indian land as well. If you have difficulty contacting the appropriate officials about site vandalism or the discovery of human remains, the county sheriff would be the next best alternative.

TRIBAL PRESERVATION OFFICERS

Most, if not all, tribes in Oklahoma have a tribal preservation office or a NGPRA coordinator. If you encounter a vandalized site or human remains on tribal lands, you contact their office. Listing of tribal contacts and law enforcement contacts are presented below:

OKLAHOMA ARCHEOLOGICAL SURVEY
State Archaeologist: Robert L. Brooks 405 325-7211

If you are having difficulties contacting any of the above parties about vandalism, you can contact the State Archaeologist with the Oklahoma Archeological Survey. The Archeological Survey would also be the appropriate contact if you simply want to report an archaeological site on state or private lands. For reporting a site on federal land, you should contact the appropriate federal preservation officer.
